HOUGHTON
RE-VISITED

In the game of chess the queen is considered the most powerful piece. She embodies tradition, yet redefines rules established by a patriarchal system. This intriguing dichotomy is the inspiration behind 'A Queen Within: Adorned Archetypes, Fashion & Chess', an exhibition of rare pieces from the world's largest private collection of Alexander McQueen as well as designs from Gianfranco Ferré, Hussein Chalayan, Viktor & Rolf and twenty other designers. The show is previewed in capsule form at Christie's New York on 4 June and opens at the World Chess Hall of Fame on 19 October.
